Website Privacy Policy Statement

At 'Make Wood Work' (WPIF) we are committed to protecting your privacy and information.

It is the policy of 'Make Wood Work' (WPIF) to act in accordance with current legislation and to meet the current best practice on the Internet. Our aim is to be responsible, relevant and secure when using your data.

We never give out any of your personal information to 3rd parties, such as your name, postcode, email address etc. If we feel there might be something of interest or use to you, we will inform you ourselves using the details you have given. We do not log personal data via cookies, and we do not link any of your personal data with third parties to build visitor demographics.

We collect data for the following purposes: Technical administration of the web site, to enhance your experience of the site, customer service and 'Make Wood Work' promotion. If we wish to use your personal data for any new purposes, we will ask for your consent to such use in advance.

We reserve the right to share your personal information if we are obliged to by law, and to enable us to apply our terms and conditions and other agreements. This includes exchanging information with other organisations for fraud and credit risk reduction.

Unfortunately, no data transmission over the Internet is 100% secure. As a result, while we try to protect your personal information, 'Make Wood Work' (WPIF) cannot guarantee the security of any information you transmit to us, and you do so at your own risk.

If at any time you wish to be completely removed from all our systems, or if you just want to update any personal data we have about you or your business, then please send an email to:
enquiries@wpif.org.uk

Please contact us by any means if you are in any way unhappy and we are sure we can resolve any problems or issues you may have. If you are not satisfied with our response you may wish to contact Data Protection Registrar who can be found at <http://www.dataprotection.gov.uk/>
